

AN AMERICAN BOY

My Uncle Jim, an ex-Marine who served in Vietnam, went Deniro in his role. My best friend Nick donned a suit twice his size to play the President. An ensemble of dozens, so many locations, and all the special effects I could want - even

It was a Labor Of Love that began when I was thirteen and didn't wrap until my senior year of high school.

My dad still claims this is the best film I have ever made.

Maybe he's right.
